Marine Praises Medics

Home on leave and a living testimonial to the skill and talents of the medical teams serving U.S. servicemen in Viet Nam.

1st. Lt. Henry Barnett, 2nd Bn., 7th Marines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Barnett, 11301 192nd st., Mokena, was wounded March 4, in a hot fight against North Vietnamese regulars.

The bullet just below the ribs on the left side and angled up slightly before emerging from his back. It missed vital organs except for damaging the lower part of a lung. "It was no time at all," he recalled at his parents home Monday afternoon, "before a helicopter came in and I and other wounded were taken aboard and flown back to a hospital, some 40 miles away. They operated on me there and a little later evacuated me to a hospital ship.

"Those people in the medical service are wonderful. Unless one has a mortal wound he has an excellent chance for recovery. Those helicopter pilots come in in the toughest spots and get the wounded out and that hospital ship has everything needed for modern surgery and medicine."

He is feeling fine, he said and he looks it.

The lieutenant is not a Monday morning quarterback nor an arm chair strategist. It is a tough war, he concedes, one that has to be won and he believes the men fighting it are equal to the job.

Following his leave he will go to Camp Pendleton, one of the Marine bases in California where he will remain until December when he is due for discharge. He plans then to begin post graduate work, probably at the U. of I. for his master's degree. He is a mathematics major.

Will county voters went to the polls Tuesday to nominate the Republican and Democrat candidates for state, district and county offices in November. Despite clear skies and moderate temperatures the number voting was comparatively light.

Martin J. Gleason, of Joliet, won the Democratic nomination for state senator in the 41st. District, beating John F. Cirricione, Joliet lawyer who was the choice of the Regular Democratic organization led by State Representative Francis J. Loughran. Gleason beat Cirricione in Will county 5,502 to 5,227 and was leading him 448 to 159 in 24 out of the 31 precincts in Grundy County. It was estimated that Gleason would eventually wind up with a plurality of about 600. Two years ago Cirricione lost in a contest for circuit judge by 11 votes.

In the contest for sheriff Joseph L. Snedic, chief of police at Rockdale and the choice of the Regular Democratic Organization, won the nomination, polling 5,407 votes, which gave him a plurality of 1,748 over Thomas C. Cavanaugh, an investigator for Sheriff Joseph Trizna. Cavanaugh had 3,659 votes, and Dennis H. Jaskowiak, chief investigator for State's Attorney George Sangmeister, ran third with 3,215 votes and Arthur O'Neill, Joliet, was fourth with 1,134 votes.

Circuit Clerk Sammy Berk was elected state central committeeman for the 14th Congressional District. Berk polled 6,204 votes in Will County and 156 in DuPage. His nearest competitor, Daniel T. Smyth, DuPage, had a total of 3,172 votes and Eugene Haller, Will county recorder of deeds, had 2,996, according to the unofficial returns. There were two other candidates.

William E. Smythe, Lockport, is the Democratic nominee for state senator in the 40th District and will be opposed in November by the incumbent, State Senator Harris Fawell, Naperville. Smythe polled 2,229 votes and Fawell 1,679 in Will county.

Gleason will be running against Meade Baltz, Joliet, in the 41st Senatorial District race in November. Baltz polled 7,180 votes Tuesday.

In the congressional races there were no contests in either party. John N. Erlendorn, Republican, seeking re-election in the 14th Dist., which includes Lockport, polled 4,660 votes in Will County. Republican Congressman Leslie C. Arends, 17th Dist., had 4,259 votes. Now included in the 17th district is Homer, Frankfort, New Lenox and the other townships outside of Joliet, DuPage and Lockport. Bernard J. Hughes, (D) who will oppose Arends had 2,471 votes in Will, and Kenneth McCleary (D) who will oppose Erlendorn had 8,459 votes.

John Lektorich, New Lenox Democratic committeeman, who was a candidate for state central committeeman in the 17th, had 1,318 votes in Will county as compared to 1,279 for his opponent, Joe W. Russell.

State Representatives Francis J. Loughran, 22,706 votes, and John J. Houlihan, 14,094 votes are the Democratic nominees for the legislature in the 41st Dist. Republican nominees are W. Robert Blair, incumbent, 11,653 votes, and William G. (Bill) Barr, 12,797. Three will be elected in November. County candidates in No-member with the vote each received in the primary, are: For county clerk; Clara Hartley Woodard (R), (incumbent), 8,987; Marie Mikan Spiers (D), 10,521; for county treasurer, Clarence Lipman (R), 8,748; Richard J. Coyne (D) 11,065; for sheriff, Martin J. Jackson (R) 8,811; Joseph L. Snedic (D) 5,407; for county superintendent of schools, Boyd R. Bucher (R), incumbent, 8,833; Mark DeLay (D), 11,168.

Charles H. Percy, Republican nominee for U. S. Senator, polled 8,777 votes in Will county; Senator Paul H. Douglas (D), 12,740. The Will county vote for the other state candidates was: for state treasurer, Harris Rowe (R) 8,762; Adlai E. Stevenson III (D), 12,010; for state superintendent of public instruction, Ray Page (R) (incumbent), 7,080; Donald M. Prince (D) 11,111. Page had opposition, Prince did not.

Many people enjoy growing something that's new, different or unusual. That's why the new rose and annual introductions prove so popular. However, new plant introductions are not limited to annuals and roses. New tree varieties and selections also are available for unusual landscapes.

Red maple has always been popular because of its fast growth and excellent fall color. Unfortunately, this color could not always be depended upon unless selection was made at the nursery when the fall color was displayed. The red maple October Glory, eliminated this uncertainty. October Glory will consistently produce a brilliant crimson red fall foliage.

Another tree with an improved leaf color is Purple

Splendor, an improved form of weeping birch. As the name implies, this is an improved leaf form and color.

Redbud is a tree that continues to fool people by its name. Not only are white flowered varieties available, but now a new pink bud. Pink Charm Redbud produces pink flowers without a trace of purple. This is an excellent small tree for a shaded location. However, because this particular variety is new its northern limit of hardiness is still to be determined.

Another small tree that is included in recent introductions is Autumn Glory, a hawthorn. It's significant for the large brilliant red fruit that persists from fall to winter.

Sunburst is a honeylocust that's been available for about twelve years. It was selected for the ability of the new growth to maintain a golden color through early summer. A companion tree is now available. Rubylace is a honeylocust with new growth that changes from bright ruby red in spring to a dark bronze-green in August.

Pin oaks have recently staged a comeback in popularity. This may be attributed almost completely to their fast growth. However, in certain locations the sagging branches have not been desirable. Now we have a pin oak that reverses itself. Instead of producing side branches that swoop down, Sovereign is a new pin oak that overcomes this. Branches of Sovereign all diverge upward... even lower ones... at angles of 45 to 90 degrees.

Mountain ashes currently have at least five new varieties. Brilliant Yellow, one of the new introductions, displays clear yellow fruit while Chamot's Charming has pink fruit. Red Cooper Glow has glittering red fruit that's smaller than usual. White fruit is produced on the new mountain ash varieties Red Tip and White Wax.

Storm Water Presents Orland With Problem

Municipalities have many problems but the one common to most is water--surface water, and Orland Park is no exception.

The fact that Orland Park is in rolling country, plus the steady development in housing and street paving, makes storm water flow faster and wider.

At the meeting of the Orland Park village board Monday night complaints were not only made about storm water but Arthur J. Creer, 8630 144th St., told the board that he was getting raw sewage in his basement, in addition to storm water, after every heavy rain.

Trustees Henry Moorehouse, Tony Kozak and Clifford Mehling are to meet with Creer in an effort to solve his problem as well as the flooding that besets George C. Flint, 9923 W. 145th St. Flint is a neighbor of John Lahti who came before the council May 23 to complain about flooding. He said that water rose to a depth of three and a half feet in his back yard. Flint told the board that one couldn't see his yard after a heavy rain, that it was like a lake.

Creer was advised to install a breakwater valve as a means of keeping out sewage but the village is endeavoring to find a solution for the condition. The sewer system in that area was designed by engineers and approved by the county before it became a part of the village, it was said. There are still about 200 homes to be built there, it was said.

It is said that the big trouble lies in the fact that too much surface water is getting into the sanitary sewer, which is forbidden by state and village law. The presence of raw sewage in basements, it was said, is also a health problem.

Most communities in the region, including some cities, are facing similar problems. Most of them are unable to finance adequate storm sewer systems and until they can, it was said, surface water will continue to plague them.

The street and alley committee is to meet with Dr. Elmer Schuessler and Harry J. Richard to see if something can be done to solve their problem. They both have property in the 9500 block on 143d St., and they would like to have the sidewalk relaid at a lower grade. Cars ascending driveways off 143d now bang their rear ends, the property owners said. Robert Davidson, superintendent of public works, is to call in county engineers for a conference. The sidewalk is on county right-of-way. The effect a grade change could have on property to the west of that owned by the petitioners concerns council members.

Trustee Mehling will have a list of proposed street repairs ready at the next council meeting, he announced.

Careless handling of garbage cans by householders (failure to bring them in after they are emptied) and the setting out of garbage in other than in enclosed containers has caused Trustees Moorehouse to call for action. The village attorney, Raymond Pieper, is to launch court action to abate this nuisance, the board decided. He also is to proceed against Cooper Body and Towing Service. The village board complains there are too many junk cars on the premises, contrary to ordinance. Pieper advised the village seek an injunction.

Building permits were issued for two homes, two room additions and a private garage.

Hire School Head For Arbury Hills

The board of education of Summit Hill School District 161 located in Arbury Hills announce the appointment of William D. Avila as school superintendent effective July 1. Mr. Avila has been on the staff of the Lincoln-Way High School science department for the past seven years. Prior to his service at Lincoln-Way, he taught for six years in the Easton Community High School at Easton, Ill.

The new superintendent received his bachelor's degree from Western Illinois University and his master's degree in school administration from the University of Illinois. In addition to attending the State College of Iowa on an academic year institute grant in 1958, he participated in a summer institute sponsored by the National Science Foundation at the University of Montana. Additional graduate hours were obtained at Bradley University and Western Illinois.

While at Easton, Mr. Avila was an officer in the Western Division of the Illinois Junior Academy of Science, with regret by the board. Two members of the department were promoted by Mayor Melvin Doogan on recommendation of Police Chief Frank Guetter. Robert Olson was named lieutenant and Robert Hubert was appointed sergeant. They are new ranks recently authorized by ordinance. The council confirmed the appointments.

Chief Guetter told the board that he "has the highest regard for these two men ... that they have always performed their duties well ..."

Mrs. Joseph Cerny, 9050 Poplar Rd., appeared before the board to seek signs denoting stops for school buses in Fairways Estates. Mayor Doogan told her he was sure that he could get the signs for her. Trustee Moorehouse suggested parents be sent letters telling where their children would be picked up and when. Mrs. Cerny said that some people in Fairway were ready to move unless stops were changed -- the children tear up their yards, they were quoted.

A building code ordinance, with three voluminous national codes covering building, plumbing and electrical work as a part of it, has been ordered placed on file for public inspection in the village clerk's office at the village hall for 30 days, after which time it will go into effect.

W. D. AVILA

president of the Mason County Male Teachers Association and active in the Illinois Education Association.

Since coming to Lincoln-Way High School, Mr. Avila has demonstrated his enthusiasm by being active as an educator, a businessman, and in many community affairs. He has coached the St. Jude's grade school basketball team for the past four years. He is married and resides in New Lenox with his wife and three children.

Paul White Resigns From School Board

Paul White, 10153 Hyacinth Drive, Orland Park, tendered his resignation as a member of the board of Education at the last meeting because he will be moving from the district this summer.

The board accepted Mr. White's resignation with regret, and commended him for his service to the school, indicating that the loss will be great as both Mr. White and his wife, June, who was president of the Orland Band Parents Association, were both active in the community.

The vacancy which now exists on the board will be filled by appointment, according to law, until the next regular election takes place. Plans are to fill the vacancy in the near future.

Lincoln-Way Board Sells Building Bonds At 4.08%

The Lincoln-Way High School board at its regular session Thursday night sold $485,000 of bonds to defray the cost of the new addition on which work has been started.

Northern Illinois Trust, a Chicago bank, was the successful bidder. Five bids were submitted and the best one, that of Northern, was for an interest rate of 4.08 per cent. The rate was higher in the other bids.

When the board sold bonds three years ago it was at an interest rate of 3 per cent. When the money comes to the board now it plans to invest that portion of which will not be needed for a few months and thus get some return to offset cost.

The board adopted the calendar for the coming year. There will be workshop session for teachers Aug. 30-31, and freshmen will attend school for half a day Sept. 1, with all students reporting for half a day Sept. 2, with full class schedules starting Sept. 6, the day after Labor Day. Christmas vacation will begin Dec. 22 and end Jan. 3. Easter vacation will be March 17-27 and commencement will be June 8. There will be 181 school days and four institute days in the 1966-67 school year.

A new teacher was hired on recommendation of Supt. A. Hunter Chapman. He is Michael Mirkovich, a graduate of Denver University who is now finishing up at Colorado State College in Greeley for his masters. He will teach social studies and assist in coaching freshman football.

Resignation of four teachers were accepted. William D. Avila, a science teacher at Lincoln-Way eight years, is taking over as superintendent of Arbury Hills school.

James Pickerill, of the mathematics department, who has been on the L-W staff three years, is leaving for Pleasant Plains, Ill., where he will become a high school principal.

Charles J. Pisoni, English teacher and track and cross country coach, is leaving to enter the school administration field, and Robert S. Allen, varsity football coach, has accepted a position at Lockport Central High School.

Robert McCoy, an English teacher, who has been at Lincoln-Way for the past year, is leaving for Scales Mound, Ill., where he will become superintendent of a community unit school district.

Martin Mackay, who has been a guidance director, freshman football coach, and year book sponsor, has been granted a year's leave of absence to serve an internship as a school psychologist in the South Cook County special education set-up. He will return to the Lincoln-Way district to serve as a school psychologist for the high school and the underlying grade school districts.

Seeks Aid To Pay For Dist. Library Election

A letter addressed to the head of civic and service organizations in the Mokena area asking their assistance in raising the money necessary to defray the cost of a referendum on the formation of the District Public Library were sent out this week by the Mokena Book Club which is sponsoring the project.

The letter reads: "Believing that the group of citizens of which you are president has many times demonstrated a sincere wish to promote the highest cultural and civic welfare of our village, the Mokena Book Club invites the assistance of your club in the establishment of a public library for our village.

"When established 25 years ago the Book Club Library served a very real need. Hundreds of citizens have been served by this library, and these citizens are grateful for that service. But what was quite an asset for the village then is not adequate for the village today. The reading public does not find the books that they ask for and the library is not open enough days during the week. This is because the Book Club members have been working with limited funds and non-professional help.

"If we expect in any way to serve adequately the people of a town that is steadily growing both in numbers and intelligence, a tax supported library is needed. A well-conducted library is not only a cultural asset for the mature citizen, but takes its place with schools and parks as a character building agency for our youth.

"The cost of financing the coming library referendum will be about $150. We, of the Mokena Book Club, are asking seven civic organizations in town to share the

Hilda Geuther Retires From Sandburg Faculty

Mrs. Hilda Geuther, Mokena, who is retiring after a long teaching career, was honored by the faculty of Carl Sandburg high school Thursday, June 2 at a banquet at Jardines restaurant. She has taught home economics since Sandburg's beginning and has built a department with a national reputation, according to Principal G.W. Davidson.

Mrs. Geuther is helping to revise a book on housing and interior decorating, and this summer she will go to Lyons Township High School to help that school plan a home economics department like Sandburg's. She has spoken at career nights, institutes and workshops, served as an officer in national home economics organizations and is helping to revise a book on housing and interior decorating.

After being out of teaching for 17 years to raise her two children, Mrs. Geuther started teaching at the old Orland Park high school. "I came at the end of October, 1948, to substitute for a day", she said, "and never got away."

At one time, the school had 96 students, eight teachers and classrooms, in churches, stores and other buildings. The home economics rooms were in what is now Loebe's real estate office. Mrs. Geuther taught home economics and home-related general science for girls. The boys science classes were separate.

When Sandburg opened in 1954, Mrs. Geuther had two home economics rooms and one teacher, herself. Now there are four teachers.

Mrs. Geuther helped plan the home economics addition of three more classrooms and a central lounge and office. She started special interest courses like Foods 4 and interior decorating to replace general courses. She also started the student teacher program at Sandburg.

She got her master's degree from the University of Illinois by studying two summers and then going to school one night a week at Navy Pier. She tried some of the ideas from summer school in Sandburg classes and never quit experimenting. After getting her degree, Mrs. Geuther went back to school and took 33 hours worth of more courses as she didn't want "to rust out."

Mrs. Geuther thinks that every girl should take at least one year of home economics.

"A substantial number of intelligent, educated women are the victims of the myth that any dumb sister can be a wife and mother", she said. "When these bright young wives and mothers find themselves confused by the complex problems of everyday living, they lose confidence in themselves and the family."

The Geuthers have a farm on U.S. 45, east of Mokena and they live in an old farmhouse that Mrs. Geuther decorated herself. She enjoys collecting dolls (she has over 500) and firing ceramic work in the kiln in her basement. The Geuthers have been to Jerusalem and to Europe four times.

After retirement, Mr. and Mrs. Geuther will start on a trip around the world, without a time schedule.

KAREN LOU BLANK was graduated from Illinois State University at Normal June 11, where she was an elementary major. She is to begin teaching next fall in District 96, Lockport. At the university she was active in the Young Republicans, Student Education Association and Association for Childhood Education. She was a member of the 1962 class at Lincoln-Way High School.

Action And Accidents Mark Midget Feature

A large field of cars was on hand at Joliet Memorial Stadium last Saturday night as Jolietan, John "Pancho" Padilla chalked-up his third feature win of the '66 season in an action packed, accident marred 30-lap event.

Henry Pens, Joliet, with one lap to go, hit the wall and was out of the race. On the final lap, with the checkered flag in sight, Paul Radamacher, Joliet, who was running a close second to Padilla, and Bob Richards of Lockport, tangled. Radamacher's car climbed over the top of the Richard's Chevy II car. Richards went out! Radamacher coasted across the finish line in 5th place. Phil Palombo, Westchester, finished 2nd and Bob Hauck of Joliet, was 3d. Earlier in the feature event, Gene Varing, Oaklawn, and point leader Jigger Sirois of Shelbyville, Ind., ran into difficulties and both cars spun out.

Phil Palombo won the trophy dash, Augie Brocker of Joliet, got the 15-lap Semi win. Jigger Sirois had the fast qualifying lap.

The points for the lead driver are so close after 6 weeks of racing, the leader changes from week to week. Phil Palombo took over the lead from Jigger Sirois this week and leads second place driver Pancho Padilla, by one point.

Lincoln Estates A.C. Loses To Malnar Tap

The Lincoln Estates Athletic club lost their first game of the season 10-9 last Monday at Heggie Field in Joliet, to the Malnar Tap. The loss put Lincoln Estates A.C. league record at 1 and 1 and their season record at 2 and 1.

LEAC rallied in the last inning to score 3 runs on consecutive singles by Schofield and Frankenberg who both scored on a single by Wishover. Wishover advanced to second on an infield out and scored on Wyzevich's single, but Fordonski flied to left to end the inning.

Don Schofield was red hot at the bat, having 3 hits in 3 at bats.

Danny, "the big bull" Wondrasek pitched great, once again, and should have easily won his second game, but errors and poor base running led to his downfall.

Casey praised Wondrasek saying he is probably the best 16" pitcher in this area.

Some great players were obtained this spring, Roger Wishover, Don Wondrasek, Nick Wyzevich, Gus Santoro, Gene Hug, Larry Nicholson, Jake Setter, Tom Bodie and Dick Smith.

Bud Scheeler and Ron Rob have both improved since last year. Don Schofield is, as always, great. Bob Seamon, the teams most valuable player last year, has yet to play this year and his return will help tremendously.

The 16" softball team has some openings in the schedule and is looking for games. Interested parties should contact Bill Frankenberg at 469-2277.

The Board of Education and Lay Citizens Committee state that a 21¢ increase in the education fund tax rate is long overdue. The present maximum .86 per cent is the lowest in the Lincoln-Way area, lower than Arbury Hills, Frankfort, Manhattan, and New Lenox. In fact, Mokena's rate is one of the lowest rates in the county, standing 27th out of the 33 county school districts. The rate increase is needed to keep up with rising educational costs of supplies, furnishings, equipment, and teacher salaries. Ten years ago when the .86 per cent rate was more than adequate a desk cost $15.42 as compared to $27.00 today, and a beginning teacher's salary was $3300 compared to $5300 today.

Another problem is the shortage of classrooms. It is hard to believe that Mokena has grown from 6 classrooms in 1950 to 23 today and that by fall more will be needed. Over crowded classrooms mean lower educational standards and poor study conditions for the pupils.

The most economical solution is to complete Willowcrest school by building six classrooms. The provisions for heating and restrooms have already been made in the previous addition. Voter approval must be had before the Board of Education can proceed to solve this problem. The six classrooms will relieve overcrowded conditions.

The third proposal is for permission to acquire more land for future school buildings. Statistics tell that the school population of Mokena will double in the next ten years and steps must be taken now toward solving this situation. Permission is being asked to purchase 21 acres of the most favorably situated land for schools in the township. This land is needed as an investment and insurance policy for Mokena children. Good land in this area is rapidly being bought up by churches and utility companies whose population projections tell them Mokena is the center of a rapidly expanding area. Surely the schools should be able to provide for expansion also.

The average taxpayer will pay about $20 more per year if all three issues are approved. Some will pay less, other families will pay more.

Let's Dance To Raise Funds

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Telephone: 479-5740

The Arbury Civic Beautification dance will be held at the V.F.W. Hall in Mokena on Wolf road Saturday, June 18, with the Hi Lites on tap to provide the music.

The cost of the tickets will be $1.50 per person, which includes the prospect of a fun evening. The net proceeds from this dance will be used to further the efforts of the Civic Association's Beautification Committee.

All the local residents, as well as visitors to our area can already see the present results of this hard working committee. Unfortunately, it takes more than a willingness of dedicated individuals, at times, to continue the good now done. It takes money to maintain the lighting at our two entrances.

The dance is a pleasant manner of raising the needed funds. Please cooperate with those who are selling the tickets, and try to purchase at least one ticket, even if you are unable to attend the dance.

When purchasing your ticket, you will be told how to become eligible for two special merchandise awards the evening of the dance. The two items are: a portable television set and a polaroid swinger camera.

The Arbury Hills Kindergarten Organization is being dissolved as an organization after being in existence for some five years as a private organization of dedicated, hard working women.

These ladies have overcome obstacles in the past, which would have caused others to give up in dismay. They have provided privately run kindergarten classes for the youngsters of the school district for the past years, while the public school was unable, because of finances and lack of facilities.

Now that a public kindergarten will be provided in our school district beginning in September, the ladies have decided that their work as an organization is at an end, and they may take their well earned rest.

The equipment accumulated throughout the years will be donated to the new public kindergarten, and the money in the treasury will be held there until the fall opening of the kindergarten class. At that time it will be determined what equipment is still needed, and the funds will be used to purchase it as far as the money holds out.

Everyone in the school district has their hats off to the long list of ladies throughout the past five years who have contributed time, work and money in order that kindergarten would be an actuality in our area, first as a private kindergarten and now as a public kindergarten.

Sack cloth and ashes for me, I guess! I goofed last week. Two ladies were inadvertently omitted from the article concerning the Junior Girl Scouts of Troop #289 on their bike hike, Mrs. Liz Horn, a nurse and Mrs. Bobbie Daliege also accompanied the girls on their bike hike.

The First Nighters held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Louis on Poplar ave. last Thursday evening. The winner of the hostesses prize was Mrs. Edward Hovi, and the next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Faye Erkmann following the summer recess. It will be held on the first Thursday in September.

Three games were held last week with the start of the baseball season. The Arbury White Sox, the A team of nine to twelve year olds played the Lincoln Estates team with our boys coming out with a decisive victory seventeen to nothing.

The Arbury Red Sox, the B team of nine to twelve year olds, also played Lincoln Estates with similar results. Our boys won by a score of nineteen to nine. The third game was also against Lincoln Estates with our little Wildcats, the farm team of eight year olds, winning fourteen to eight.

The Arcuri family of 19547 South Walnut st. had two birthday parties in three days last week with Theresa having her children's party on Friday to celebrate her seventh birthday and Mary having a tenth birthday for some of her young friends two days later on Sunday.

A surprise baby shower was given for Mrs. Al Behnke last week in preparation for the impending arrival next month of her fourth child. It was given by her sister-in-law Mrs. Leanne Blecha, along with two of her friends Mr. Phyllis Prather and Mrs. Mary Ann Tekotte. It was held at Mrs. Prather's home.

Social Sec. Office Head Says "Thanks"

Sincere appreciation to all the people and organizations in the Joliet Social security district office area was expressed by Harold Whiteside, Manager, for their help in making the medicare sign-up project a success.

Whiteside said that all the media of public information has cooperated to the fullest extent in telling the public about the medicare requirements. The job was so well done before March 31st that the extension of the deadline was of minor importance in the Joliet area.

Schools, churches, labor unions, hospitals and doctors, public offices, Stateville prison, and many civic and business organizations contributed to the success of the project. In sending expressions of appreciation to those involved he pointed out that very few people over 65 applied for medicare between March 31 and May 31. Nearly all of them knew about the March 31st deadline but had failed to come in or had changed their minds.

Whiteside provided the following information about the payment of the doctor bill premiums of $3 per month. Those receiving benefits will have the amount deducted from their checks starting with the July 3 check. Those not receiving benefits will receive a notice of premium due card during June. Instructions included tells them to pay the premium by check or money order and not to send cash. The premium is for $9 for the three-month period of July, August and September. It is payable before July 3. Both the check and the notice are to be returned in the envelope furnished. Whiteside stressed that no letters or other materials are to be included with the premium payment. Questions about the payments should be directed to the social security office.

Norma Knieriem Becomes Bride of Peter DeLair

At a 4 o'clock ceremony the afternoon of April 16 in the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church, Miss Norma Knieriem became the bride of Peter DeLair.

Rev. Potenhauer officiated at the double ring wedding service uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Knieriem, 16 Walnut st., Frankfort, and the son of Royal DeLair of Palos Park and Caroline Holyoke of Hinsdale.

Guest soloists, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Baumgartner, were accompanied at the organ by Otto Beccue.

Escorted by her father to an altar enhanced by palms, ribbons, Easter lilies, white roses and carnations, the bride wore an A shaped silk linen with appliques, pointed long sleeves, attached floor length tiara, her crown was a tier of pearls with a veil to the shoulders. She wore a pearl drop necklace and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Carol Hossbach attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a aqua floor-length linen bell shaped gown and wore a cabbage type hat. She carried daisies and carnations.

Bridesmaids were Pat Murphy of Mokena, dressed in yellow; Sharon Jurcak of Mokena dressed in orchid and Barb Stamm, sister of the groom, dressed in mint. They all carried daisies and carnations.

Orville Knieriem, brother of the bride, attended as best man. Ushers were Richard Stamm of Brookfield and Bill Herzke of Blue Island. The groomsmen were Leo DeLair of Orland Park, Vernon DeLair of Chicago and Pat McCarty of LaGrange.

Mrs. Knieriem, mother of the bride, greeted guests wearing a three piece green suit, beige accessories and a corsage of pink roses and carnations. Mrs. Holyoke wore a two piece blue suit with beige accessories.

Mrs. DeLair wore a three piece green suit with beige accessories.

Honored guests were the grooms grandparents, Mrs. E. R. Cardy and Mrs. Hazel DeLair, also the brides grandfather, Carl Vogt.

A reception for 120 guests was held at Mickelberry's at Park Forest.

The newlyweds motored to Florida for eleven days and are now residing at 600 Lincoln Lane, Frankfort.

Editor President Science Church

Erwin D. Canham has become the new president of the Christain Science Church as members from around the world convened in Boston for their Centennial - Year annual meeting.

Simultaneously, construction workers one block away were beginning land clearance for the religion's dramatic new expansion of its headquarters area, known as The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

These were the climactic events in this year's observance of the 100th anniversary of the beginnings of Christian Science under the leadership of Mary Baker Eddy in 1866.

To the annual meeting, it brought the biggest attendance in the Church's history, flowing over into the adjacent Civic Auditorium and a nearby theatre, where the proceedings were carried on closed-circuit television. An estimated 15,000 people were on hand.

Mr. Canham, who is a well-known journalist and editor in chief of The Christian Science Monitor, will serve as president for one year while continuing his Monitor duties. He came to the meeting directly from a major world speaking tour, which he will resume next September in Europe. Capacity audiences have greeted the editor in 34 cities and four countries, thus far, to hear his non-denominational public address on "The Spiritual Revolution," which was initiated this year in connection with the Centennial.

"And now we move into the second century," began Mr. Canham, speaking before the annual meeting in his new capacity as church president.

"It is a thrilling moment," but also "urgently challenging," he told the assembly.

"Civilization stands at one of its great crises, perhaps the greatest and most dangerous yet encountered. The world can press forward into the light. Or it can drop back into the darkness.

"False confidence has brought society close to disaster," he said, and summed up three major challenges that must be faced: "destruction of civilization by nuclear warfare unchecked population growth, leading to famine ... moral destruction of society through sensuality and licentiousness."

These challenges "are to be met successfully nowhere except in human consciousness," he declared.

"The battles to be fought and won are in the hearts and mind of humanity, as individuals strive to understand and apply God's laws the truth of being."

One of the specific contributions of Christian Scientists, he states, is in bringing out the broad possibilities of "spiritual healing" and spiritual awakening," he added.

A message to the meeting from The Christian Science board of directors noted the "radical changes" taking place in humanity's thinking about "the 'God is dead' doctrine certainly does not signify the death of God as Jesus knew Him, or even as Abraham, Moses, Jacob, and the prophets knew Him.

"It does herald the end in human thought of a concept of Deity as a magnified human personality -- and an increasing awareness of the nature of God as infinite Spirit, which Christ Jesus declared Him to be; as omnipresent divine Mind, that mind which was also in Christ Jesus; and the infinite Love which St. John declared constitutes the very nature of Deity."

But to overcome and heal the ills that beset our world today, said the message, will require spiritual discipline, "faithfulness to divine truth and love ... bringing to the world a higher concept of God as divine principle, in the realms of business, government, social service, the political sphere, and in every phase of human thought and action."

Several new steps to improve the church organization and prepare it for "the challenges which lie ahead," were noted by the directors, as well as in reports to the meeting from different church departments.

Two of the most important innovations mentioned were a new International Department and a new Youth Division for better coordination of the Church's growing operations in these areas.

Similar changes have already added four stories to the proposed height of the new Church Administration Building announced last year as part of the expanded 15-acre "Church Center" now under construction.

The detailed plans call for a 26-story building and other facilities at a cost of more than $8,000,000, with extensive private development on surrounding church-owned land.

Garden Club Discusses Herb, Rock Displays

An informative and interesting program on herb gardens and rock gardens highlighted the meeting of the Mokena Garden club when it met last Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. George Mahalick.

The first half of the program was given by Mrs. C. R. Lanham and after a demonstration on how to make May wine from herbs, she told of the many uses and superstitions connected with herbs. She also brought her collection of herb plants for observation by the group. The second half of the program on rock gardens was given by Mrs. Donald Schofield. Sketches of different kind of rock gardens were shown along with the various types of plants used. Several of these plants were then available to members at the plant exchange that followed the meeting.

A committee report from Mrs. Berle Needham told of the recent Labor Day planting at St. Mary's school. The essay written by the winner Mary Lee Soja was read. She was the recipient of a book on trees. Mrs. Donald Schofield, garden show chairman, reported that plans are progressing for the annual flower show to be held on Aug. 30 and 31 at the VFW hall on Wolf rd.

Kruzich To Attend Administrator School

Joe Kruzich, assistant superintendent of Lincoln-Way High School, has been selected to participate in one of four summer institutes for school administrators. The institute, entitled IDEA (Institute for Development of Educational Activities) operates under a grant from the Charles F. Kettering Foundation.

Mr. Kruzich is one of 400 top school administrators invited to take part in this all expense paid Fellows Program. He will travel to Carleton College in Northfield, Minn. for the week-long session, July 1-7, which will encompass concepts of creativity in school administration, new concepts dealing with change in the curriculum and organization of schools, the new role of history and the social sciences in the learning process, and the changing role of the federal government in education.

Each participant in the Institute will be considered an IDEA Fellow and will become a part of IDEA's network for school improvement through innovation and change. The organization plans to keep in touch with its Fellows and anticipates receiving feedback about improvements which they are making in their schools. The staff of IDEA will also keep Fellows posted on new developments in administration and curriculum as they occur.

Mr. Kruzich began his career in education in 1949 as industrial arts teacher at Virden (Ill.) Community High School. Five years later he came to Lincoln-Way to establish the industrial arts curriculum. In 1959 he was promoted to the position of administrative assistant. In this capacity his duties included responsibility for the total school discipline, school attendance, bus routes and eventually served as Athletic Director. Of major significance during this time, Mr. Kruzich developed and instituted the Student Service Organization. The main purpose of this organization was the student control of study halls, thereby enabling teachers to be involved in teaching only. This resulted in substantial savings to the district, as well as establishing an opportunity for student leadership. This organization has grown from student control of 27 study halls to the present 84. Mr. Kruzich has served as the first president of the South Suburban Deans Association, an organization of 27 Chicago suburban schools; he is a member of the National Association of Secondary School Principals, Illinois Association of School Administrators, National Education Association and the Illinois Education Association.

Mr. Kruzich has been in the present position for the past two years.

Stage Is Her World, Says Carol Channing

When Carol Channing went to an art museum in Chicago, the only thing that caught her eye was a woman who walked like Dolly Levi, the character she plays.

At the Schubert Theater, Miss Channing recently gave a high school press conference, which was attended by a Carl Sandburg High School AQUILA reporter.

The star of HELLO, DOLLY! is so engrossed in her work that she said what she likes best about Chicago is the audience at the Schubert.

Miss Channing knows how to hold an audience. For the press conference she wore navy blue stockings, pleated skirt, and jacket; a white vest; a red ascot; a huge white hat; and a gold watch (from her son Channing) around her neck. She left her seat and came to the edge of the stage to talk to her interviewers and even promised two boys that she would try to get to their prom.

Miss Channing is "terribly focused" before every performance, she said. She thinks of nothing but the play. In spite of playing the name part eight times a week, she still gets stage fright because, she said, "this might be the one audience we can't reach."

Dolly Levi, the scheming New York matchmaker, is quite a different role from the one Miss Channing is famous for--Lorelei Lee, the coy flapper in GENTLEMEN PREFER BLONDES. The new role has added another dimension to her personality.

She had always been "overly girly", Miss Channing said, to compensate for her height. Now she feels taller, older, and bossier, because "Dolly Gallagher Levi doesn't give a darn about femininity."

Miss Channing's career started in fourth grade when she was elected class secretary. When she read the minutes every Friday for an assembly, she mimicked the people she was reading about, to her classmates' delight. Consequently, she was re-elected every year all thru school.

At Bennington College in Vermont, Miss Channing idolized actors and actresses. She imitated them so much that they almost became a part of her. For a while, she said, "I had Ethel Merman in my esophagus tube, amalgamated into my system." When she was struggling to get a start in the theater and couldn't get a job, Miss Channing resorted to painting pictures of Sophie Tucker.

Miss Channing is the wife of producer David Lowe and has a thirteen-year-old son Channing. Her home life is based on her acting career.

"There's no pulling two ways," she said.

An actress's health is precious, Miss Channing said.

"I don't smoke and drink, and I live like a boxer." Her home town is "mid-air on the road."

The only thing she dislikes about the theater is being out of work. Asked why she was an actress, Miss Channing said that she had no choice; without acting, there would be no excuse for her existence.

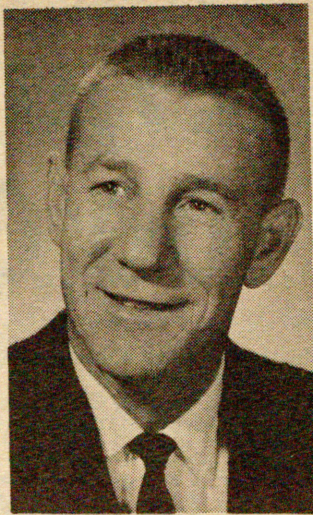

Miss Channing likes musical comedies best because they are easiest to get across to an audience. In a straight play, she feels as if she is in jail. Comedy and tragedy are really the same, Miss

N.L. Pastor Leaves On New Assignment

The Rev. Glenn E. Ames of the New Lenox Methodist Church is being transferred to The First Methodist Church, Waukegan. His parish ministry in New Lenox will terminate on June 15; and the Rev. Herbert W. George of the Bethany Methodist Church, Highland Park will be in charge of pastoral duties here.

The Rev. Mr. Ames has been pastor in New Lenox for the past three years. The church has prospered under the leadership of this minister and his wife, who is also an ordained minister with full service rights in the church. During their pastorate the church has paid off the remainder of its educational building debt and purchased the 20 acre camp ground property for expansion and community betterment, as explained in recent issues of this paper. Improvements have been made in the church and parsonage property. There has been a noticeable spiritual growth among members, according to reports.

The Rev. Mr. Ames is an active member of the New Lenox Association of Commerce and an active concerned citizen for community growth advancement and Channing said. They draw the same picture, but in comedy "you put heavy crayon around it and exaggerate what you want to."

Carol Channing is a shrewd businesswoman as well as a dedicated actress. After her night club act, she used to throw "diamonds" to her audiences. "It's cheap, low-type show business," she said, "and it's inflexible."

Chicago audiences are often better than New York audiences, she said. After the first two months in New York, the audiences are made up of tourists, who are afraid to respond too loudly. People on their own home ground are less inhibited.

Miss Channing's next project is a movie with Julie Andrews, "Thoroughly Modern Milly," in which she will again play a flapper. She hopes to build up a movie audience, which she now lacks.

A movie of "Hello, Dolly!" will not be made for several years, until the stage show has completed its run. By the time "Hello, Dolly!" is ready for a movie, Miss Channing wants to be ready, too.

betterment. He has said that the New Lenox community has a tremendous growth potential and vast opportunities for ambitious and well qualified newcomers and has urged local citizens and business leaders to make them feel welcome and work together in laying plans for the beautification as well as for the growth of the town. The Ames' have repeatedly expressed their appreciation to the people of the community and to this paper for the fine cooperation, consideration, courtesy and encouragement given them during their work in this area and will, no doubt, long remember the fine people who have worked faithfully with them.

WORTH TALKING ABOUT

"And if we refuse to be counted--those of us in business and industry--who have we to blame if government takes over more and more such roles where we were the logical, the prepared, and the most talented ally? I know no antidote to spreading government intervention in our society like being anxious to apply ourselves as industrialists to every facet of that society's improvement before government has to move in to correct a grave deficiency."

Col. Barney Oldfield, USAF (Ret.)
Litton Industries, Inc.

"We can have a sound industrial and municipal water supply, commercial waterways, water recreation, flood control and wild rivers, fishing and hunting, hydroelectric power, and improved water quality at a price we can pay without undue hardship. But we can have all these only to the extent we are able to work together in the establishment of realistic goals which take into consideration all the factors relating to the common good. Make no mistake about it, whatever the clean water program, you and I will ultimately pay the bill in increased taxes or increased costs of the goods and services we use."

Howard is currently chairman of the corporation's subsidiary, Field Enterprises Educational Corporation. Last fall he had announced plans to resign next Sept. 30, the end of the company's fiscal year, to devote most of his efforts to other interests.

"We have been most fortunate in persuading Bailey Howard to give up his earlier plans and ultimately to assume full-time leadership of all of our enterprises," Young said. "Our good fortune will be shared by Chicago and Illinois. Bailey's accomplishments are well known. He led World Book Encyclopedia and its companion publications and services to a position of pre-eminence in the United States and abroad. His talents, imagination and drive are in demand in many fields all over the country. I am thankful that he has agreed to concentrate them with us and our community."

Howard said, "When I announced my intention last year to resign from our Educational Corporation I expected to pursue a career in public service and to divide my time between Chicago and other places. Now I am convinced that there is no greater opportunity for service to communications, education and the public than here in Chicago and with the parent company of the organization for which I began selling books 25 years ago. I welcome the challenge and privilege of carrying on the traditions of Field Enterprises, Inc."

The position of chairman of the corporation has been vacant since the death Sept. 18, 1965, of Marshall Field IV. His son, Marshall Field V, 25, is a director of Field Enterprises and its principal subsidiaries and a trustee of the family trust which owns more than 70 per cent of the corporation's stock.

Field said today: "My family is most grateful for the magnificent leadership our executives have given to the enterprises built by my father and grandfather. No two men have contributed more to our tremendous achievements than Mr. Young and Mr. Howard. Today's actions of the board insure the long-range continuation of this record."

Field Enterprises, Inc. is the parent corporation of a group of subsidiaries and divisions in the communications field. Through its Newspaper Division it publishes the Chicago Sun-Times and The Chicago Daily News. Through Field Communications Corporation it operates UHF station WFLD - Channel 32 in Chicago.

Through Field Enterprises Educational Corporation it publishes World Book Encyclopedia, Childcraft, the "How and Why" Library, the World Book Dictionary, the World Book Atlas, the Cyclo - Teacher Learning Aid, the World

Book Year Book, and Science Year, the World Book Science Annual. The World Book Encyclopedia Science Service distributes science features to newspapers, including the personal stories of the astronauts and their families. Recently Field Enterprises Educational Corporation acquired A. J. Nystrom & Co., manufacturers of maps, globes, charts, models and other educational materials.

Field Enterprises, Inc. owns Manistique Pulp & Paper Co., two suburban newspapers, The Arlington Day and The Prospect Day, and jointly owns Publishers Newspaper Syndicate.
